Who Should Attend this Conference?
The Spring conference is of interest to professionals involved in the process of returning persons with disabilities to the workforce. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are pending for Certified Rehabilitation Counselors (CRC), Certified Case Managers (CCM), Licensed Certified Professional Counselors (LCPC) and Claims Examiners. Certificates will be provided to all attendees at the conclusion of the conference and may be submitted by professionals to their licensure or certification boards for continuing education credit.

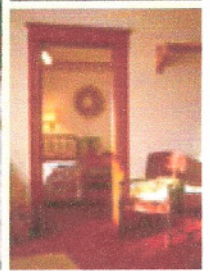

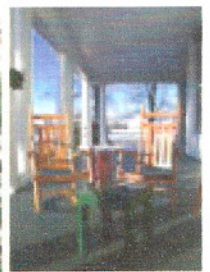

About the Sponsor - The Rehabilitation Association of Montana (RAM) is a chapter of the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP), an organization of professionals who provide rehabilitation services to persons with disabilities. Members primarily include, but are not limited to, vocational rehabilitation specialists and medical case managers whose goal is to return their clients to the workforce. Membership applications are available from the IARP website: www.rehabpro.org

Registering - The postmark deadline for early registration is April 26, 2010. Individuals paying the early registration fee after the deadline will be billed the late fee. Early registrants will receive a confirmation and receipt by e-mail. Registration includes breakfasts, lunches and snacks.
Note: At this time, RAM anticipates approval for up to 7.5 ethics credits; with an overall total of 12 credits for the conference.
